CENTER STAGE

Involvement in athletics and clubs at Marcos brought attention to individuals. Both leadership and charisma surfaced as students took steps to utilize their personal best. Although the numbers of students in leadership roles were few compared to the student population, there were many ways in which students found the center-stage spotlight.

Football players, basketball players, and other athletes became familiar to the school because of their abilities. Cheer and pom-pon were constantly performing for the crowds. The band gave MdN musical performances at games and assemblies. Student Council members ran assemblies and spirit days. Club leaders, involved in the respective clubs, ran meetings and organized activities.

Due to the large number of activities available, many students were able to showcase their talents and shine at Center Stage.

*WE *ALL BELONG

Unity prevailed at Marcos, bringing students and faculty from widely different backgrounds together as one. Accomplishments of both students and teachers in and out of the classroom were widely recognized and celebrated, creating a sense of pride in the entire school. One example could be found in the enthusiastic responses at athletic competitions as well as an overall feeling of regret in any disappointments.

Each student had over sixty choices of clubs, activities, and athletics from which to chose, so that every individual, no matter how diverse the interest, could find a niche. Many of these groups, as well as individual classes, combined efforts on such projects as the United Way campaign, working together on projects which benefited not only the school, but also the community. These activities also brought people close together, allowing for the formation of friendships that would last a lifetime.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

The variety of personalities, emotions and appearances of the two thousand students at Marcos played an important role in making the school unique. Activities provided students with opportunities to perform outside the classroom. Leadership roles were available to students who felt as though they desired to work with others on an in-depth level. With the leadership roles came recognition from fellow peers, creating a special atmosphere in which students were able to shine in their own spotlights. With a little determination, any student could obtain the spotlight and the respect of all. Many students at Marcos reached that place, and this responsible participation made life at Marcos de Niza more exciting and rewarding.

WE ARE ALIVE

Activity abounded on campus due to spirited participation in athletic competitions and other school-related activities. Football games, spirit assemblies, class assemblies, Homecoming Week, and Spring Week were just a few of the activities that kept students alive, and spirited participation was the key.

While the pommies and cheerleaders were kept busy performing at games and assemblies, student council maintained a hectic schedule, organizing Homecoming, the Christmas dance, Coronation, Morp, and Prom. The group also ran the majority of assemblies. Other performances, by the various bands, orchestra, and choirs also crowded the calendar, providing excellent entertainment for faculty and students alike.

Examples of the hectic activities which flooded the campus could be found during Homecoming and Spring Weeks. With activities planned for each day, students participated in t-shirt sales, enjoyed lunch-time D.J.'s, dressed up in response to Hero and Pajame Days.

With this hum of busy activity on campus and the various activities, it was easy to see that on the Marcos de Niza campus, WE ARE ALIVE.

Students at Marcos de Niza were involved in a variety of activities. They attended and showed their school pride at various sporting events throughout the year. Another part of student life was students' involvement at spirit assemblies, where they showed their class spirit by participating in class competition. Students again showed respect for their school and others at the more serious assemblies that were held this year. Most students found that an important part of student life was meeting people. This created new friendships and added to the memories shared by old friends. A student's life outside school was also important. Teenage jobs brought many Marcos students together.

The 86-87 school year's theme was We all Belong. Everyone, from seniors down to freshmen, learned that there was a place for them at Marcos. Most importantly, everyone realized that student life is really what they make of it; and almost all of the students made the most of their year at Marcos.

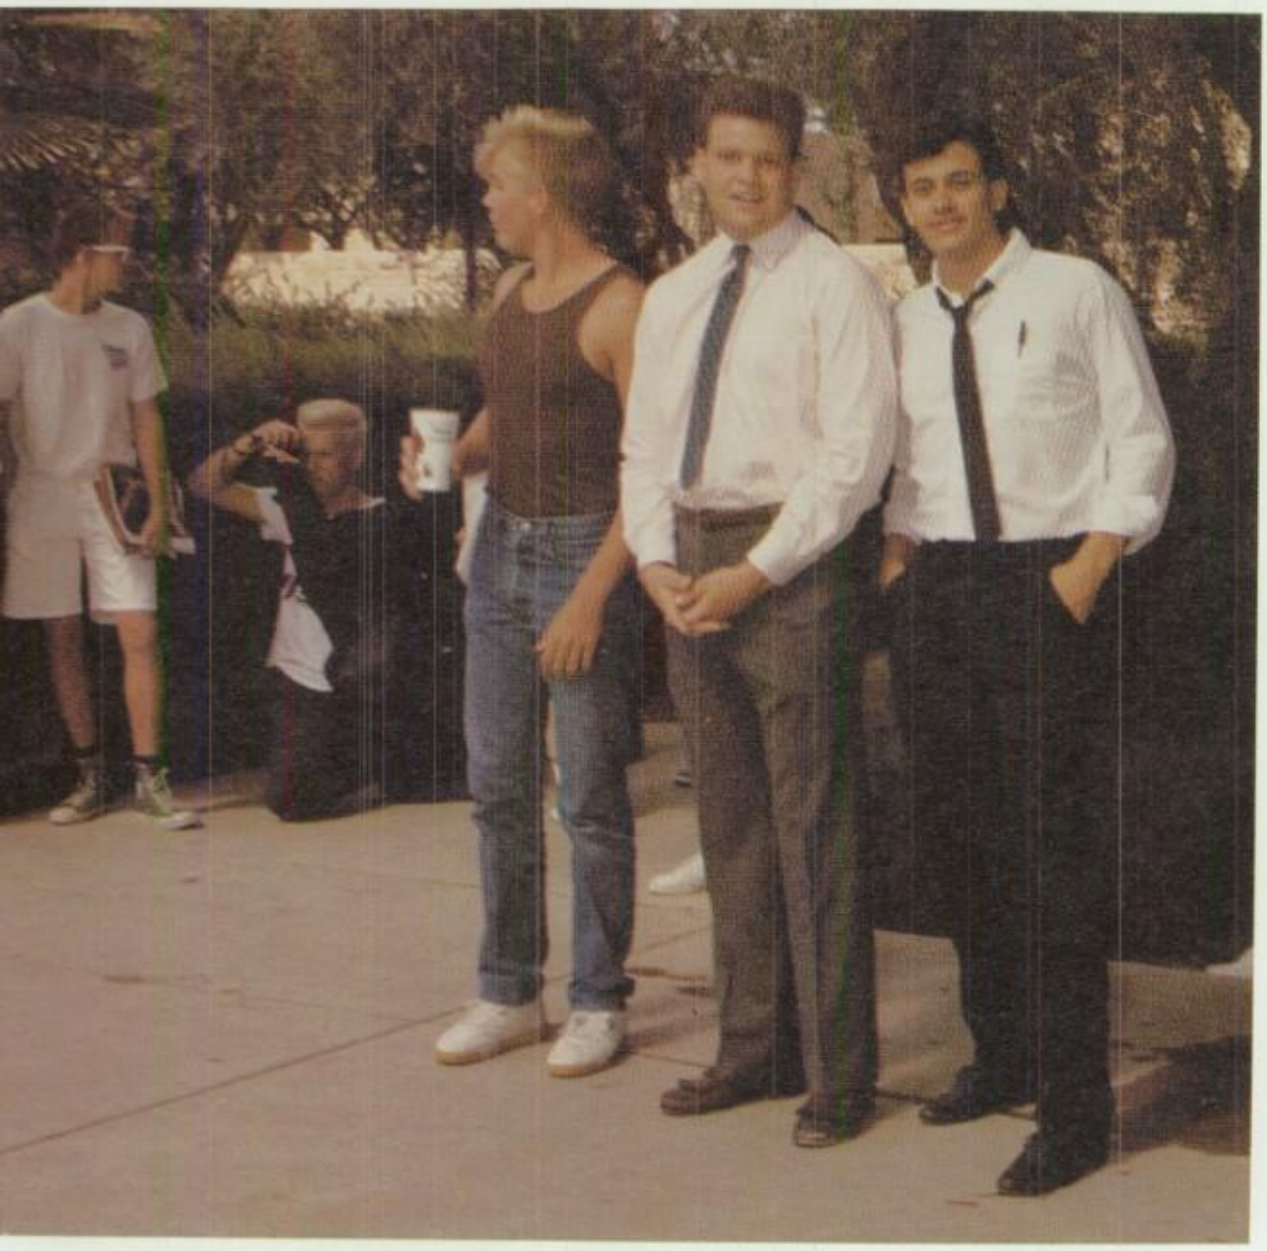
STUDENT STYLES



The Personal Touch

Although the feeling on campus this year was We All Belong, it was obvious to those who observed student fashion that individuality was the most important factor in determining what students wore. Students' personalities determined their preferences, mixing and matching current fashion trends, creating unique styles of clothing, and even played a part in students' choice of automobile.

Clothing styles ranged from the conservative to the wild and daring. From backpacks to bookbags, sneakers to pumps, the ways things were worn had a direct relationship to a person's character. For every person, there was a different and unique style which mirrored the personality.

The student parking lot contained a wide variety of vehicles. From broken-down models to the more expensive Mercedes 360 S.L., students were bent on finding a set of wheels to get them around. Whether self-paid or parent-funded, many managed to get a car.

Campus styles demonstrated the diversified personal statements students chose to make. Although students may have had less of a choice of automobile, the various cars nevertheless added to the diversity of styles and color that converged on the Marcos de Niza campus.

SPIRIT ASSEMBLIES

Stand up for Padre Spirit!

School spirit exploded early in the year prompted by strong participation from a rowdy group of juniors. Students displayed enthusiasm by participating in various activities during spirit assemblies

The first assembly of the year psyched students for the annual rivalry between Marcos and McClintock. This assembly also included the traditional freshman initiation. Freshmen entertained the upperclassmen by bobbing for greased eggs, eating pepper sandwiches, rolling balls around the gym with their noses, and catching pies in their faces. Although the student body may have come to the assembly feeling sluggish and unspirited, they left excited and confident that Marcos would find victory over McClintock. All of the pep assemblies seemed to follow this pattern, with emotions running higher after the assemblies.

Chants and class competitions were popular with all of the classes and arose at the most unexpected times.

While the pommies and cheerleaders performed for the student body, raising spirits for the games, the band did its part by playing the fight song, alma mater and other lively tunes led by Drum Majorette, Anjanette Bigler. Adam Phillips, Matt Armstrong, Troy Gray, Brandon West and Steve LaLonde played an important role in promoting spirits, performing as the first male cheerleaders at Marcos.

These lively assemblies played a major role in raising spirit at Marcos de Niza.

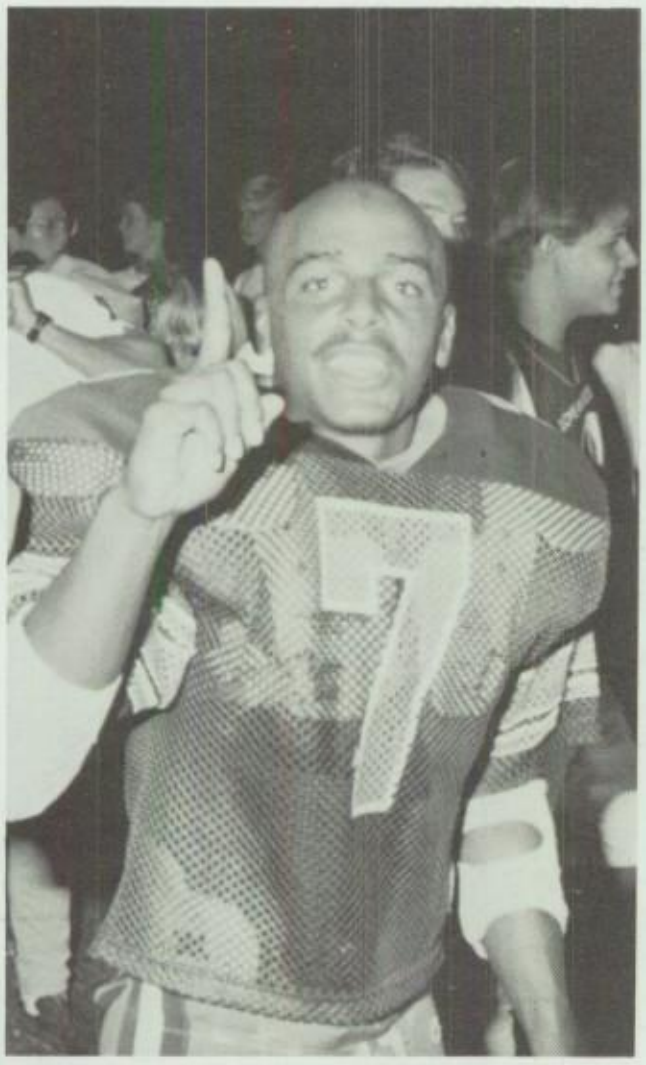
SPIRIT AT GAMES



We've got Spirit, Yes We do!

It is a Friday night at the football game. The crowd is cheering as the players take their positions after a touchdown. The awesome scoreboard is glowing in the dim light, revealing an everchanging outcome. As the team scores yet another touchdown, the crowd roars in excitement.

This is the kind of spirit our school had at the football games last fall. In a successful attempt to have fun and provide the players with encouragement, the students of Marcos de Niza High School displayed an abundance of enthusiasm.

The sale of Padre buttons, ribbons, and shirts also boosted school spirit. These popular items, sold throughout the year, showed students from our school and others just how spirited we really were.

Numerous cheers also upheld school spirit. Students were heard yelling cheers such as P-P-P-A-D, R-R-R-E-S, P-A-D, R-E-S. PADRES go! and 1-2-3-4-5, we don't take no jive, 6-7-8-9-10, back it up and do it again and even more descriptive of our school, We've got spirit yes we do, we've got spirit, how about you?!

COLLEGE NIGHT

Building for the Future

On October 20, for the fourth year in a row, Marcos de Niza held an out-of-state college night. Dr. Bill Fitzgerald sponsored the event which was assisted by the National Honor Society. The purpose of this annual assembly is to give students an opportunity to learn about colleges located outside of Arizona. The event was not restricted to those students who attend Marcos. Students and parents from around the valley were encouraged to attend.

Over fifty colleges and universities, from Adams State, to the United States Academies, to Williams Wood were represented. Registrars and admissions officers from colleges around the country attended. These representatives spent the evening answering seemingly-endless questions. Financial aid admissions, and campus curricular and co-curricular functions were some areas of particular interest.

Although the event was open to members of all classes, mostly juniors and seniors attend. Eric Peterson, one of the many juniors there, said It's a good way to get started planning for my future early.

Travis Wright was also enthused. It had a lot of information about a lot of great colleges around the country.

HOMECOMING WEEK

Bursting with Pride

The campus of Marcos De Niza was bursting with excitement during Spirit Week, which promoted school spirit in preparation for the Homecoming game.

Students enthusiastically participated in many events. Wednesday was Pajama Day when students could come to school dressed in their night clothes. Long johns were the warmest of costumes, but teddy bears were the ones closest to the heart.

On Thursday, Hero Day, students were able to portray their childhood idols. Students and faculty dressed in everything from the Blues Brothers to kissing bandits. Also on Thursday night, the annual spirit bonfire was held, at which time seniors were auctioned off to the highest bidder to be a slave for the entire day and night on Friday.

Friday found students wearing their Homecoming week T-shirts to show off their spirit and enthusiasm for the Homecoming game that night. All in all, the week was successful, filled with numerous unusual events.

HOMECOMING ROYALTY

Heaven in Your Eyes

A romantic theme for Homecoming 1986, Heaven in Your Eyes, reflected the emotions and spirits of Marcos' students. The week before the homecoming game, the funfilled spirit days helped to boost student moral.

Twelve candidates, paired into six couples, competed for the titles of homecoming king and queen. Melissa Beamsley, Cathy Copple, Samantha Thomas, Lisa Mancuso, Kristy Edwards, and Lisa Davis were all nominees for homecoming queen. Jeff Haugen, Brett Hofmann, Martin Despain, Sean Warren, Gerard De Los Santos, and Jeff Sanuik were nominated for the 1986 homecoming king. Stand-ins were necessary for a few of the male candidates because of their participation on the football team that night.

The participants in the ceremony were not chauffeured around the track in convertibles as they were last year because of an installation of a new track. Instead, they were introduced as they strolled across the turf and stood in their designated places to form an open triangle. The suspense was ended when Lisa Mancuso and Sean Warren were announced the 1986 Queen and King toward the end of the ritual at half-time.

The attendance of alumni at the game was tremendous. Included among them were several cheerleaders from last year who made a special appearance at the game and performed along with the current cheerleaders. A special feature to this once-a-year occasion was a fireworks display including an illuminated sign that urged Go Padres.

FAME

Behind the Curtain

In past years, many performances by the drama department have entertained Marcos audiences. Students, faculty, and parents are always impressed by the quality of these dramatic endeavors.

This year, the first performance was Fame. Based on the movie, Fame, it was set in New York's School of the Arts.

Ms. Partee, head of the drama department, worked hard on the musical production with her crew and cast. The one thing that made this year's performance stand out was the faculty participation. Many faculty members participated, including Mrs. Dodge, Mrs. Waltuch, Mr. Greaven, and others who worked alongside students.

Auditions for the play began in late September, and the cast spent about two hours a day rehearsing, singing and dancing its way to the performance held in late fall. Tickets were sold at the door for the performance on November 13, 14, and 15. Fame exploded with excitement throughout the presentation, and all who attended were happy they had not missed the excellent presentation.

CAMPUS LIFE

Take Six

Aside from dances, assemblies, and special events, the 1986-87 school year at Marcos was spent in a simple way. The everyday, seemingly trivial events or campus life are what made the students' years at Marcos so memorable.

Munching with friends, amidst the chit-chatter of the cafeteria, and driving out to lunch packed in cars were among the daily routines at Marcos. There was never a loss of appetite where the student body was involved. This showed immensely in the success of numerous candy sales.

The hubbub of campus could be heard in the six minutes between classes which began with the sounding of the first bell, as students funneled out of classes. The noise grew, rising to a peak, but with the second bell, abruptly ended. The few stragglers left sprinted to class to avoid being marked tardy.

After the rigamarole of attending classes, many of the more energetic students found pleasure in joining clubs or participating in athletics. At Marcos, there were many various forms of extracurricular activities, clubs, and sports.

Memories of Marcos de Niza's spotlight performances, such as dances, athletics and clubs will live on forever in the souls of the student body, but it was the seemingly trivial moments of each day which provided the heart of campus life.

CHRISTMAS ASSEMBLY

'Tis The Season

During the period of annual holiday festivities in the nation, the student body at Marcos was inspired with seasonal excitement at the 1986 Christmas Assembly.

The Padre Concert Band magnificently performed songs related to the holiday spirit and contributed in making the assembly special and unique. Although the orchestra played for the Christmas Assembly in past years, they were not able to assist by performing on this occasion.

The A Capella Choir was another factor that aided in the raising of Christmas enthusiasm. Their voices entertained the student body with traditional holiday music such, as Halleluiah and Mary's Little Boy Child as Marcos students indulged in their own early celebration.

The guitar ensemble, led by Mr. Bob Diaz, sang and played familiar tunes inviting the audience to clap and sing along. Mrs. Garcia, Spanish teacher, offered her talents with her maracas and joined in with Feliz Navidad toward the end of the assembly.

Christmas comes only once a year, but with the help of Marcos de Niza's talented musical groups, the students had a memorable holiday season.

SUPER DANCE

For the past six years, Marcos de Niza High School has held its annual Super Dance, a fund-raiser for the Muscular Dystrophy Association. Many Marcos students got together again this year to celebrate the theme, Dance for those who can't!

Money was raised through pledges. A minimum of thirty-five dollars worth of pledges was required to attend the dance. In previous years, each pledge received a minimum of twenty-five cents an hour, resulting in at least three dollars for the twelve hours, from noon to midnight, that the students danced. This year, however, students sought donations prior to the dance and then met the obligation to dance for a full twelve hours.

Held at Rawhide, the Super Dance included students from twelve participating schools. Although the number of students participating was not as successful as in past years, Marcos de Niza showed the most spirit and support by yielding fifty of the eighty-two students who participated. Marcos de Niza alone made $3,200 to contribute to the Muscular Dystrophy cause.

STUDENT WORK

Experience, Money, Fun

Whether it was at a clothing store, grocery store, restaurant or cafeteria, many students at Marcos de Niza worked hard both on and off the campus. Students worked for many reasons-to help out at home, save for college, or just for a few extra dollars. Whatever the job and whatever the reason, students worked hard.

Co-operative Office Education (COE) was one job program in the business department at Marcos. In this program, students received help finding office jobs at such places as Salt River Project, lawyers' offices, and Arizona State University. Students were paid while they received credit for their work. Mrs. Crews was in charge of the COE program at Marcos.

Students also enjoyed working at retail stores and restaurants. Michelle Abbot was one sophomore who worked hard and did not have to worry about grades. I usually work nights so I have time to do my homework after school. Michelle works about twenty hours a week at McDonalds. I work for extra money to put away for a car, she added.

In any case, the students here worked hard for their money the past school year.

SPRING PLAYS

Students Take Charge

Production performance students were busy second semester working on two one-act, student-directed plays to be presented in the spring.

The two plays, A Game, directed by senior Amber Cowen, and The Final Dress Rehearsal directed by Robert Bentley, sophomore, were selected for performance by the class members.

In the four-person performance of A Game, the players were Sean Jensen, Bill Hagen, Chris Mathias and Wendy Matheson.

The Final Dress Rehearsal cast was Suzy Csaszar and Sean Jensen. Others in the cast were Kim Gasparek, Twain Archer, and Kelly Ray, Melissa Harmon and Michele Husmann.

Both the shows were produced by the drama teacher, Mrs. Partee, although the student directors were given full responsibility for the productions. Mrs. Partee said, It is all on their shoulders, but I expect good results. The student directors were selected on the basis of experience and enthusiasm for the job. Robert Bentley, a sophomore, lacked experience but was energetic enough to take on the task of directing, said Mrs. Partee.

Through their hard work and efforts, the class's cast members, technicians and directors ended the year with two super shows that pleased the student body.

WEEKENDS

It's Time To Celebrate

At Marcos de Niza, like most other schools, there was one thing that kept students going through the year ... Weekends. And at Marcos de Niza weekends were made to have fun.

They usually started with a Friday night game. There, students began to make plans for the rest of the night and Saturday. Burger King was another place where students went to see what was going on.

There are many people who enjoyed dancing the night away. They went to dance clubs, such as Prisms and Sgt. Peppers. Some other students spent time getting together at friends' houses for a good time. Others liked to go to the movies and then out for a bite to eat, while some simply rented movies at home.

Weekend afternoons were spent shopping or just kicking back to relax. Some students browsed Fiesta Mall, meeting new friends, while others enjoyed thrift shopping along Mill Avenue.

However students spent their weekends, they were well relaxed on Monday, ready to face another challenging week at school.

S.A.D.D.

Amber Lights

This year a new club was added to the MdN campus. S.A.D.D., Students Against Driving Drunk, is an active club whose goal is to prevent death and injuries due to accidents caused by students driving while intoxicated. They began this year with a special presentation called Amber Lights.

The goal of Amber Lights was to inspire students to realize the value of balance and moderation in their lives. According to the ideas upon which Amber Lights was based, if students are to change their attitude about drinking and driving, they must be impressed with the benefits of the change, as well as the steps needed to bring out the change.

The president of S.A.D.D. here at MdN, Greg Streech, spoke to the students and faculty on what they were about to see and the purposes of S.A.D.D. Sarah Burger, an active member of the S.A.D.D. organization, said Many students don't want to become involved in S.A.D.D., because they drink, but the purpose of S.A.D.D. is not to discourage drinking, but to discourage drinking and driving.

S.A.D.D. met in Mr. Adler's Drivers' Ed room about every week to plan new things, talk about progress they made and make posters for upcoming events. MdN should be proud of these few people trying to tackle such a big problem.

FASHION

Creative Freedom

Fashions took a blast from the past for 1987 as the 1950's 60's and 80's were all mixed together in one crazy swirl of style and color. The 1950's flair for hair was reflected by ponytails and buzz cuts. Holding on for another year was the now-classic bob, but it was updated as longer and straighter. For the guys, mohawks were out, but there was no shortage of peroxide-splashed bangs, sometimes long enough to cover the eyes. Girls' styles were flavored with modern innovations such as crimping or playful bows and headbands. Mousses, gels and lotions created the extreme effects most students strived for on special occasions.

Gold and silver earrings were a popular accessory for guys, as well as girls. They ranged from dangly hoops, as seen in the psychadelic sixties, to a simple post worn by trendy guys. Also from the sixties, turtlenecks made the scene. But combined with leggings, shoulder pads, and a Swatch Watch, the look was strictly eighties.

Brand names fading fast were Izod, O.P., and Ralph Lauren, replaced by popular brand names including Forenza, Espirit, Guess, Union Bay, Gennerra, and of course, the suddenly vogue Corona T-Shirts. Along with the fitness boom came Reeboks and rugby styles for both genders, as well as biker caps and skater gear.

The bottom line for the 1987 fashion was a creative freedom to choose from styles of three distinctive eras.

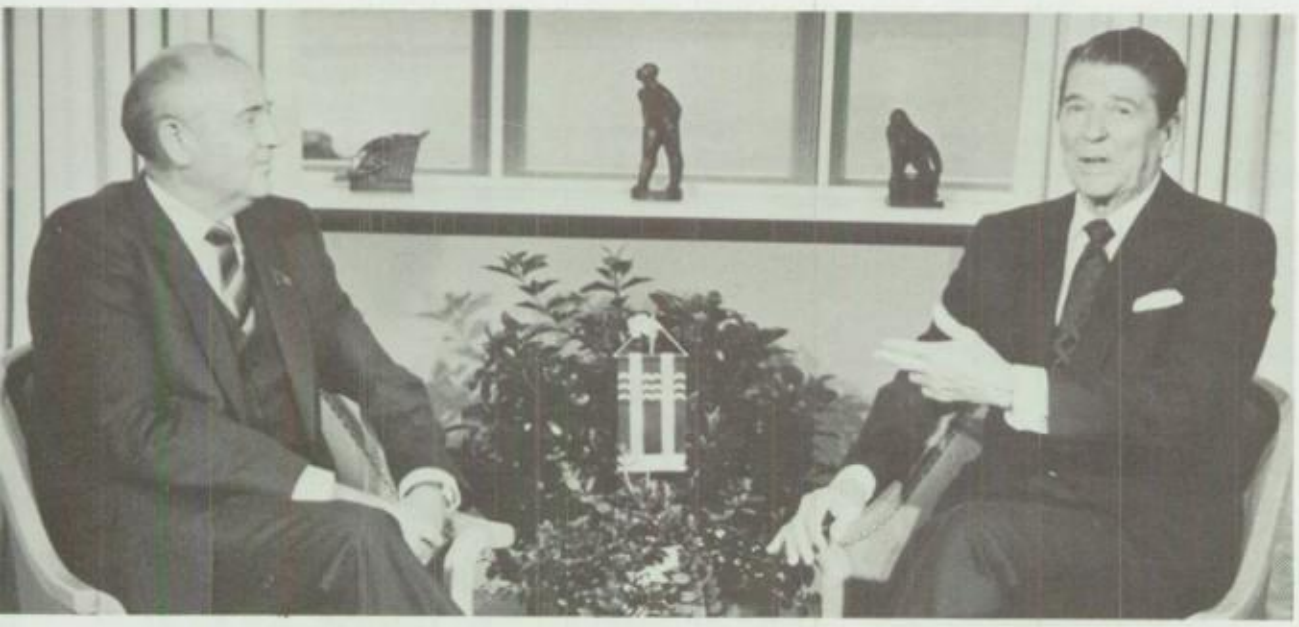
NEWSMAKERS



Weddings, Politics, and Other News

Since 1972, class after class of students have graduated from Marcos de Niza amidst a variety of world events. This year, like all others, has been filled with both sad events and great happenings.

One of these special occurrences was the rededication of the Statue of Liberty. New York City hosted a 1986 bash, honoring the first one hundred years of this American landmark on Elis Island.

Another event, not quite so happy an occasion, also made the headlines. The worst dry spell on record spread throughout the southeast. As a result, many farmers were on the brink of ruin.

An international newsmaker involved Soviet U.N. employee, Gennadiy Zakharov who was arrested on a New York subway platform and accused of spying. A week later, Nicholas S. Daniloff, an American journalist, was captured in the Soviet Union, and accused of being an American spy. Weeks later, after extensive diplomatic negotiations, both men were released.

This event was followed by a two-day summit in Iceland. Despite high hopes for the meeting, President Reagan and Mikhail Gorbachev reached an impasse on testing of Star Wars weaponry.

America's eyes were also turned toward two great social events. In July, Caroline Kennedy was married to Edwin Scholossberg, a New York businessman. This was followed closely by the marriage of Britain's Prince Andrew, the queen's second son, who took Sarah Ferguson, popularly known as Fergie, for his wife.

These elaborate weddings were only two of the happy events that contrasted the trying events of the year.

From freshmen to seniors, the spotlight shifted from student to student, each seeking his class as the best. Though many were viewed center stage, whether enduring freshman initiation or accepting diplomas, many other students worked behind the scenes. Candy sales, carnation sales and other fundraisers were used to obtain funds to carry out each class's responsibilities. Also, in more fun-filled moments, students of each class provided tremendous school spirit in attempts to prove their class was more spirited. When separated into grades, students joined together to achieve common goals and found, as a result, that while working together and sharing special moments, the formation of long-lasting friendships was one of the special benefits.

MARCOS DE NIZA H.S. presents THE GRADUATING CLASS OF 1987

The Senior year is the best. It got better year after year. Lisa Davis' comments reflected the opinions of the entire Senior class. Senior activities were geared toward preparation for college. The In-State College Day and Out-of-State College Night were proofs of this with a high attendance rate by Seniors.

Fund raising was not a necessity for the Senior class, because they had money retained from previous years. However, the seniors did have a very successful Senior Slave Day. During Homecoming week, any Marcos student could buy a Senior Slave for use on Friday. One of the highest-paid slaves was Sean Warren, who brought forty-eight dollars.

According to Jeff Sanuik, Being Senior class president was a really rewarding experience. I think the Senior class went great, and I'm looking forward to the Senior class trip to Hawaii.

The officers for the Senior class were Jeff Sanuik, president; Gerard de los Santos, vice president; Jeff Haugen, treasurer; Linda Rios, secretary; Sean Warren, boys' representative, and Lisa Davis, girls' representative.

Remember . . .

My best remembrance of high school is getting out of school, putting off my homework until ten at night, staying up till 4 a.m. to get it finished and then coming to school feeling like a zombie.

-Keith Shillito

Kristy Edwards and I, in freshman P.E., would do "pray for rain" dances in hopes the timed half mile, or any for that matter, would be called off.

-Lisa Davis

What I remember best . . . My freshman year, being in love with a different senior guy every week.

-Sherri Spinner

I broke three alarm clocks trying to turn them off in the morning to get up early enough for school.

-Kara O'Neill

My most memorable experience at Marcos was having to do five hours detention work, (picking up trash), for smoking.

-Amy Hayden

I'm going to miss the social life, parties, ditching class, and parties.

-Kyle Hillis

The memories will last forever, The results will last a lifetime.

-Richard Harris

MARCOS DE NIZA H.S. presents THE CLASS OF 1988

The Junior Class worked hard and used teamwork to reach its goals for 1987. We had the best class, said Johnny Chin, boy's representative for the Junior class. Over all, they had an enjoyable and memorable year.

Working together as friends and fellow classmates all year were the class officers: Michelle Guzman, president; Kelly Arredondo, vice president; Tiffanie Ross, treasurer; Donnell Dumos, secretary; Johnny Chin, boy's representative; and Karen Randall, girl's representative. Ms. Santa Cruz provided tremendous help as sponsor for the Junior Class.

Candy sales provided funds for the Junior class throughout the year. The Junior/Senior Prom was also partly sponsored by the juniors who were determined to do their best and to achieve a high level of envolvement in all activities. Examples of their eagerness to really be a part of life at Marcos, could be found everywhere. Johnny Chin supported this saying, The Junior class had a lot of spirit.

They expect to be one of the most dynamic and creative Senior classes that Marcos has ever seen next year.

Still Ready For More

I want to stay active, keep up my G.P.A. and still have a good time. That shouldn't be hard for junior Eric Swagel. Since his freshman year, he has been active on basketball, ski club, French club and rebounders. In addition, his grade point average is a 4.3. Yet with all those activities and accomplishments, Swagel does not feel he has been too active. There is still a lot I want to do. Eric helped form the Jewish Student Union with Ian Remler; he felt the group was for the good of the students.

Although his high school years have been a lot of fun, Eric is anxious to get on with his life. He hopes to enter Brown University and major in something in business.

Camels in your yard?

Junior Edouard Sitbon is new to Marcos this year. Born in France, Edouard lived in Haifa, Israel, for eleven years before moving to Arizona this past year.

Edouard participates on J.V. Cross Country and is Co-News Editor on the PADRE PRESS. I like very much working with the paper. The people I work with are very friendly, and I enjoy spending time with them in Journalism, commented Edouard.

Edouard's other interests include world traveling, (to Australia, the Far East and Africa), playing the piano and watching Steven Speilberg movies.

He plans to graduate next year and then go back to Israel and go into the Army for three years. His long-term goal is to become an international lawyer.

I was very surprised when asked questions about what Israel is like: 'Do you have T.V.?' 'How about camels in your backyard?' 'Do you still wear Biblical dresses?' Explaining to the students that Israel is a very modern country was very unexpected, said Edouard.

Writing Rights Hale

Junior Donna Hale's interest in journalism began in eighth grade when she was on the yearbook staff. Freshman year, Donna decided to become involved in the school newspaper. She started out as a reporter, but during her sophomore year, she was given the position of public relations. Finally, her junior year, Donna became co-editor-in-chief of PADRE PRESS. As a junior, Donna functioned as Teen Gazette correspondent for Marcos and also wrote articles for Tempe Daily News and Teen Times.

After every story I write, I feel I am a better writer, and it makes me want to write more, commented Hale.

It was during a journalism convention in Flagstaff that Donna became aware of her second major interest, government. One of the people she met was going to be a page in Washington, D.C. After he told her about it, Donna became very interested and decided to attend the week-long Close-Up program in April of 1986. This trip increased her involvement in government.

I've thought about being a politician, but right now journalism is my main focus, said Hale.

After graduating, Donna will go to college. There she plans to major in journalism with a minor in public relations.

Donna Hale is also involved in other activities. She had done volunteer work at the Phoenix Childrens Hospital and has been a peer counselor and youth leader at the Holy Spirit Catholic Church.

MARCOS DE NIZA H.S. presents THE CLASS OF 1989

The sophomore class carried its spirit from last year and proved to be an interesting group. Claiming to be a very spirited class from the previous year, the sophomores were faced with a challenge to maintain their enthusiasm. Several strong leaders helped the class meet this challenge. There is a small core of dedicated workers, said Mrs. Dodge, class sponsor.

Mrs. Atlee, along with Mrs. Dodge, were the sponsors for the sophomore class this year. The officers were Nicole Young, president; Sherri Jenniges, vice president; Brooke Beadles, treasurer; Jared Rittenhouse, boys' representative; and Gioia Pitts, girls' representative. With this core of leadership, the sophomores worked hard to complete their projects.

We made a lot of profit from the carnation sale for Homecoming ... the reason we have the carnation sale is to raise money for Coronation, which the sophomore class sponsors, said Nicole Young.

The sophomores used their money mainly for Coronation, but any remaining money was carried over for next year.

Overall, the sophomores helped improve Padre spirit and made 86-87 a year to remember.

Spotlight on Jeniges

I love working with people. That was Sheri Jeniges' main reason for running for student council. She served as Sophomore vice president.

I want the students at Marcos to have more school spirit and be more enthused. To promote that spirit, Sheri would like to have more assemblies, activities and more support for the athletic teams.

One of Sheri's goals is to raise her grades in order to get into the National Honor Society. That is a major goal of mine.

Being on student council for the last two years hasn't been enough for her. Someday, I'd like to be active in Deca . . . hopefully, basketball, pom or cheer and track for another year.

After graduation, Sheri would like to go to Colorado State University and major in Veterinary Medicine. I've always wanted to be a vet. I love animals.

Comic talent

Sophomore Clint Hinkle has a talent that is something out of the ordinary. He writes stories for comic strips. He works for James Reade, the comic writer for Dr. What. Clint first became interested in comic writing while he was out one day with his friend, Chris Rierson, at a shopping mall. They came across a man drawing comics. After suggesting a few ideas, the man, James Reade, asked them to write a couple of captions and said he would send them a free copy of his next book. They continued to submit ideas, and they now write full-fledged stories, earning twenty-five dollars per story. The comic is starting to go nationwide; when this happens, they will each get six percent of the profits.

It's the weirdest experience of my life . . . It just happened by fate, commented Clint.

As one might guess, English was Clint's easiest and most favorable class. In the future, Clint hopes to attend A.S.U. and become a writer.

Musical whirlwind

Karyn Hargis' interest in music may only be outweighed by her enthusiasm. Even that's a toss-up.

Karyn, a Sophomore, plays tenor saxaphone in the band and is alto for acapella choir, where she also occasionally plays accompaniment on the piano.

That's just for starters.

This musical whirlwind has studied piano for seven years, so she plays whenever and wherever she gets that chance — church, talent shows, weddings and just for fun.

The young musician enjoys singing, especially ballads and love songs, and will perform whenever she gets the chance.

Such practice should be helpful to her career, for Karyn plans to major in music when she gets to college.

This year, she tried acting, too, playing a dingy actress trying to get into a performing arts school in the musical Fame, presented by the Drama Department.

Was Karyn born musical? It is just a part of my family, she said. My mom sings in the church choir . . . we're all just very musical.

She is musical — and enthusiastic.

MARCOS DE NIZA H.S. presents THE CLASS OF 1990

Freshman students approached their first year of high school with the realization that this was their time to mature. Although at first, they were frightened by a larger school, upperclassmen, and harder courses, the freshmen soon found their places in the 1986-87 year.

Leading the way were the freshman class officers Chris Mitchell, president; Katie Sisulak, vice president; Heidi Schultz, secretary; Eric Jenson, treasurer; Robin Lutes, girl's representative; and Jeff Bell, boy's representative. Mrs. Cardona, sponsor, added direction and guidance.

The freshman class displayed great enthusiasm during class competitions. Winning a few competitions helped them gain the recognition and the respect of the upperclassmen.

Fundraisers, mainly candy sales, were successful. More activities were planned for later in the year; the class of 1990 was very concerned with getting involved with the school.

Now prepared for their sophomore year, the class of 1990 is ready to lead Marcos with continuing high spirit, as well as greater personal development.

Musical Marvel

Intelligent, musical, artistic . . . what more could anyone ask for?

Dorothy Tsai, a freshman, can play six different instruments - the cello, flute, violin, viola and the organ. She has played the piano the longest, for approximately nine years. She learned to play the rest of her instruments along the course of studying the piano.

Dorothy has won numerous awards for her musical talent. A first and third place in the Junior Phoenix Symphony Guild Piano Concerto, second place in Junior Baldwin Keyboard, and a scholarship to N.A.U. music camp.

When asked why she is so successful, she replied, It's mostly enjoyable and challenging.

Along with her musical talent, Dorothy is also a high achiever academically. She is currently enrolled in three honors courses and is maintaining straight A's in all of them.

In the future, Dorothy plans to go to college and minor in music. Her major is undecided at the moment, but she has a wide range of topics from which to choose.

Daredevil Dunn

Freshman Holly Dunn has an interesting hobby unheard of to many students. She races bikes competitively.

Holly started five years ago when her younger brother, who also races, talked her into trying it out. Now she has gone so far as the national races. This year alone, Holly won six out of eight nationals, placing second in the two she did not win. Last year, she counted a first in the Grand National Bike Race held in Oklahoma among her achievements.

In local competitions, Holly is matched up with boys her age, but she races only other girls in national competitions. When racing in Reno, Nevada, a television crew interviewed Holly and a few other girls on the topic of tomboys. Holly's feelings were that the girls aren't tomboys at all! However, she said the boys they race do get a little upset when a girl wins a race.

For Holly, bike racing has its good points, as well as its bad points. It's like one big family, says Holly. People of all ages take part in bike racing. However, there are negative aspects, too. For example, breaking eleven bones began annoying Holly. It also gets expensive. Each local race is seven dollars, and they take place five times a week. National races cost thirty dollars per race, and since they are held in different states, transportation and lodging add to the cost.

Holly also puts in a great amount of spirit to Marcos, since she is a freshman cheerleader.

As for the future, Holly does not plan to continue bike racing as a major hobby. She is ready to move on to new challenges.

Devoted Dancer

Dances Toward Her Dream

Ballet is Tamara Barden's life. For the past nine years, the freshman has devoted her time and effort to the art of ballet, and she does not plan on giving it up. She claims no one really persuaded her to dance; she simply became interested and wanted to try her luck.

Tamara presently dances with Adams Ballet Academy. She practices three hours a day, six days a week. Why such devotion? Tamara is training for the famous ballet, The Nutcracker, produced by the dance company, Ballet Arizona.

Tamara's accomplishments include placing seventh at the Arizona Dance Guild Ballet Competition and winning a few scholarships to summer ballet schools in San Fransisco and Seattle. Tamara has also been to New York for the past two summers performing on a scholarship with the School of American Ballet.

Her future goal is mainly to keep with ballet. College, at this point, is undecided.

Regarding her success, Tamara believes, If you try hard enough and believe in yourself, you can achieve anything.

While many students gained recognition for academic excellence, publicly spotlighted in front of the entire student body, a great deal of hard work occurred behind the scenes. Many other students, while not fully recognized, also learned many academic goals. Marcos de Niza students, faculty, and administration worked closely together with the common goal of developing students' academic skills and knowledge. While some students were never awarded centerstage, they greatly improved valuable skills necessary to help them seek their fame in the future.

Administrators provide unifying force

The administration, the unifying force that holds Marcos de Niza together as a whole, is directed by Dr. Bill Fitzgerald, Principal. His responsibilities are two-fold: first, to make sure school goes in an orderly process whereby students are learning what is being taught, and secondly, to see that instruction is going well in the classroom. Various other duties, such as meeting with parents, teacher evaluations, budget preparations, and attending school events also keep Dr. Fitzgerald always on the go.

Mr. Vic Sanchez, Assistant Principal, has many diverse responsibilities. These include class scheduling, registration, and discipline, all of which take a great deal of time and skill. Mr. Sanchez is particularly adept at juggling class schedules.

Mr. Bill Vanney is in charge of discipline and athletics. He works to promote athletic support from the student body. Showing his support for the football team and fulfilling an old promise, Mr. Vanney allowed Jason Mullis to throw a pie in his face, after Marcos' defeat against the McClintock Chargers.

Ms. Rosalina Baldonado, who joined the Marcos administration midway through last year as Assistant Principal, worked hard throughout her first full year at Marcos. She focused on rebuilding the attitude here, working especially hard with the spirit and motivation assemblies.

The entire Marcos de Niza administration is excited about the new buildings on campus. After twelve years, Marcos will finally become a complete school with an auditorium and a second gym; and we are looking forward for these to be completed for the students' use, stated Dr. Fitzgerald.

The guidance and counseling staff provided numerous valuable services to students. The staff consisted of Mr. Meyer, Mr. Torres, Ms. Steensen, Mr. Sanchez, Mr. Simeone, Mr. Lira, and the latest addition, Mr. Muños. The counselors provide services to students who are having trouble at home or elsewhere or need counseling for their futures. The counselors also helped students with schedule planning and problems, so they could be adequately prepared for the future.

There were four full-time counselors who were regularly assigned to students, as well as several others who assisted students in special areas. The four regular counselors were each assigned four hundred students, divided alphabetically. The special interest areas included student employment, vocational education and military careers. These various advisors were able to help students meet their unique and individual needs.

The Marcos de Niza counselors worked hard to provide students with all necessary services to help meet their specific needs for today and the future.

Special Needs Receive Attention

Many different activities occured in Special Education. The classes collected newspapers for the Lyon's Club and the school nurse. Some students were involved in Junior Achievement through the Free Enterprise class.

One very popular activity was the Special Olympics in which students competed with other students county and state wide in various events such as swimming and running events.

Special Ed. students were also involved in the Special Service Sunshine, (the S.S.S. club), a service club which prepared Special Ed. students to participate in regular school activities. The students completed three service projects each year. Some were donating food to needy families and helping out with adults at the Westchester Home Center; these activities benefitted both the community and the school.

In the S.S.S. Club, the students make and sell buttons for various events during the school year, said Mrs. Bobo.

The Special Education class as a whole participated in a wide variety of events throughout the school year.

Experience Adds to Education

With only one new teacher, Ms. Whitehead, the Math department was composed of many veterans. It is a fairly large department, since students at Marcos are required to take math courses to graduate.

As head of the Math department, Mr. Lassen is responsible for evaluating the Math teachers, ordering and budgeting for the department, and assigning classes and rooms. Mr. Lassen said I'm very lucky in that I have great teachers to work with. The math department is very experienced and can offer the students an excellent education.

The courses available in the Math department were basic arithmetic, consumer math, elementary algebra 1A-1B, Algebra 1-2, honors algebra, geometry and analysis.

A fairly new math-related club sponsored by this department is Mu Alpha Theta. Its purpose is to tutor students who are having problems in math. The organization came to campus last year inviting students with a "B" average in algebra 3-4 to join.

English Enhances Writing Skills

The English Department's goals focused on writing improvement, student participation, and the application of English skills in other programs. One of the primary goals, the improvement of writing skills, was stressed from the Freshman year through the Senior year. This goal extended writing assignments to the reading of literature.

Student participation was utilized by having less lectures and more student involvement. Having students analyze and evaluate the literature was a tool that helped build critical-thinking skills, which will help them in adult life. The English Department was deeply involved in the improvement of teacher instruction that is sponsored by the district for all departments. Our department is appreciative to the district office for its encouragement in the improvement of instruction by having offered various courses in critical thinking and in teacher improvement techniques, Mrs. Watson, head of the department, said.

Becoming an extension between other programs such as math, science, history, art, auto mechanics, P.E., and Home Ec. was a goal for which the English Department aimed. Our language is the very soul of communications . . . how can we work effectively unless we all connect? Mrs. Watson asked.

From reading and understanding literature to writing compositions and reports, English is a major part of Students' lives today.

Corrective Reading Helps Students

Reading plays an important role in students' lives. From novels to textbooks, reading is an active part of each day. The Reading Department is set up to help and service the remedial and corrective reading student. Classes held this year were Reading 1-2, Reading 3-4, and Reading 5-6 for Freshman, Sophomores, and Juniors. Classes were also offered for foreign students at Marcos de Niza.

The department's goal this year was to support students and help them in the assignments of other classes. Juniors taking American History and Junior English, and Seniors in American Government, Free Enterprise and Arizona History can be assisted by the Reading Department.

The department is there to help the students at Marcos de Niza, and help make the school shine!

Basic Skills for Future Jobs

Business classes offer basic skills needed for almost any job in the area of business. Popular courses offered include typing, computers, COE, DECA, and Word Processing. Word Processing is a fun and challenging class, because you learn something new on computers everyday, says Jenifer Fuhrmark.

A few of the business courses assist students in finding jobs; for example, DECA and COE help students get involved with the community by teaching them skills and techniques needed for the field of business they would like to follow. From courses like this, a student can get on-the-job training and get paid at the same time. Business classes provide a hands-on opportunity for students to gain the skills and experience necessary for future careers.

Foreign Language Builds Futures

According to French teacher Mrs. Joann Pompa, The Marcos de Niza language department offered students the chance to learn more than just a language. The student was given the opportunity to build an appreciation not only of the language itself, but the culture, history, and future of that language. Marcos offered students French, Spanish, German, and a new addition, Latin. Every year the Foreign Language Department gets bigger. This year was no exception; it enabled the students to take upper-level classes in order to become affluent in diversified languages.

The students at Marcos become more aware of foreign language opportunities with the addition of one required credit from the department. Mrs. Pompa feels that students should expand one's career and travel horizons by taking multiple years of a language. The continuation of language-oriented clubs, such as French Club, German Club, and Latin Club enabled students and faculty sponsors to expand their language opportunities to extra-curricular activities. Membership was offered to any student, whether taking the language or not.

Program Growth-Buildings, Teachers

The Social Studies Department's main objective was to educate students about history, people and cultures on the national and international scale. Current events played a big role in this. Teachers also prepared the students for the ACT and SAT examinations.

In order to graduate, students are required to take certain Social Studies courses each year. These include Global Studies the Sophomore year, American History the Junior year and Arizona History, American Government, and Free Enterprise for the Senior year. Geography, Criminal Justice and Psychology are offered as electives. Honors classes for Junior and Senior requirements are also available.

Mr. Yniguez, Social Studies department head, has strong feelings toward the students studying more. We feel the students need to read more.-Not only to prepare them for college, but for what the future holds.

The Science department is excitedly awaiting the completion of the new building. Because of overcrowding, many physical Science classes were held in the Biology labs. Next year, the physical Science classes will be in the new building, leaving the Biology labs open for more experimental work.

Science courses were offered at different levels, from remedial courses through the honors level to meet the needs of all students. All courses were available at three different levels.

On October 23, 1986, Mr. Malcolm Wells was presented a Presidential Award for Excellence in Science and Mathematics. He received a grant of $5000 to be used in any way to improve the Science and Math department. Mr. Wells is using the money to fund a new program for incoming Freshman minority students. The purpose of Wells' new program is to encourage minority students to take more demanding college preparatory courses on campus. Students participating in the program will take a combined Algebra and Chem/Phys. course in a two-hour block. Mr. Wells has wanted this program for quite some time and is looking forward to its implementation.

Hands-on Work Is Fun and Skillful

The Art-related classes were taught by Mr. Painter, Mr. Urchike, Mr. Villaverde, and Mr. Zavaletta. The Industrial Arts included auto, woods, metals and drafting. The most popular class in terms of enrollment was auto. Mr. Painter, accounting for this, said, After taking auto, students go right into occupations having to do with automobiles. A wide variety of Art-related fields such as Basic Art, Art Design, Ceramics, Commercial Art, Drawing, Painting, and Photography were available to students. Students who took these classes felt the courses offered a relief from the burden of homework. In addition, they provided opportunities for those students to pursue work they enjoyed the most.

Popular classes also beneficial

An elective everyone seems to enjoy is Physical Education. The classes vary from Beginning Physical Education, which is mainly taken the Freshman year, to Advanced weight training and net classes. Beginning Physical Education is a requirement for all Freshmen. According to Mrs. Hoke, We feel it is just as important to teach the body as well as the mind. After the one year required in Physical Education, many upperclassmen elect to continue in P.E., taking weight training and net classes, which are open for Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors.

Home Economics—Not Just For Girls

To some people, Home Economics is just for girls. But according to Mrs. Crane, one of the Home Economics teachers, This class is for girls and boys alike. For instance, if a person were not married, and he did not know how to cook, he might end up eating out every night which could get expensive.

There are more classes in the Home Economics Department than just Foods. There is Sewing 1-2-3-, which is a semester class, and Home Design will teach how to do things like an interior decorator. Child Development teaches how to raise a child if one gets married. A new class, Fashion Merchandise Center, is only offered for Juniors and Seniors. Home Economics Related Occupation, or H.E.R.O., is a class in which students worked outside of class for a credit. H.E.R.O. is only offered to Seniors. Other classes include Personal Awareness, for freshman and sophomores, and Human Realation is for Juniors and Seniors. A whole lot of kids get involved with this class mainly because the more work they do, the more things they get in return, such as foods. The more time kids put into something, the students get just as much things back, said Mrs. Crane.

Many kids enjoy Home Economics and Mrs. Crane hopes that everyone else will as well.

From Backstage to Spotlight

The Drama Department set the mood for the Performing Arts, with its fall performance of Fame. Going from the nervousness of tryouts to the jitters of opening night, performance is what the Performing Arts Department is all about.

The band, hopping from NAU to ASU Band Days, pulled off superior and excellent ratings. The band led the school spirit at football games with its fantastic half-time shows. Using car washes and department fundraisers, the band was in gear for a successful year.

Also in the performance arena, the Orchestra rehearsed each day to achieve superior and excellent ratings at ASU.

The choir also had a profitable year. From hawking at ASU to rummage sales, its fundraisers proved to be successful. As well as its annual concerts and festivals, it combined with other schools to put on an exceptional performance.

Students with some talent and a desire for excellence were involved in the soul of Performing Arts. The support of students and faculty gave the members both on stage and behind the scenes the applause they deserved!

SPORTS

Padre Pride glittered in the spotlight at athletic events. Beyond the element of fun, involvement in athletics provided students with a greater understanding of sportsmanship, leadership, and many other respectable human characteristics. Throughout the year, teams at Marcos proved to their opponents that Marcos de Niza was not just another school. While several teams and individuals were rewarded center stage with championship and individual honors and endured both victories and disappointments, Marcos athletes symbolized the excellence and determination found in athletic competition.

Cross Country Strides for Excellence

Dedication is the key to success, said Coach John Dutton. The attitude of the entire cross country team reflected this idea, as they pushed themselves on to victory. During the summer, members of both the boys' and girls' teams trained by lifting weights and running distance. During the season when regular practices began, runners were required to attend morning and afternoon runs.

The boys' teams, both varsity and junior varsity, were coached by Dutton. The final meet left the varsity team 7-4, and the J.V. 9-2. The highlight of the season was winning the City Championship on three levels- Varsity, J.V. and Freshman. Top runners included Burt Perrine, Steve Quintero, Brett Hofmann, Mike Chalmers, Eckart Pape, and Karl Winkleman, all who received All-City honors. Varsity team captain Brett Hofmann commented, Being on cross country was like being a member of a close family. All year long we competed with top schools, and in the end, proved our strength as a team.

The girls' team, coached by Pete Pond, finished the season with a record of 5-5, the best record ever for a Marcos girls' cross country team. Top runners were Kim Jackson, Heidi Curtis, Amy Brock, Michelle Hillman, Sam Thomas, Lori Lagro and Lisa Davis. Although the season was competitive, runners such as Jackson and Curtis propelled Marcos into the spotlight.

Although eleven seniors graduated, next year's team will also be full of depth. Returning Juniors Burt Perrine and Karl Winkleman, Sophomores Kevin Ferguson and Rob Ferguson, and Freshman John Garcia will be back and ready to perform.

Swimmers and Divers spring to victory

The divers had an outstanding season. Senior diver, Tom Davis, did extremely well; he made it to state, and, although it was not his best performance, he placed eighth. Davis said, I thought the season went by too fast. The competition was pretty good, and maybe it will get harder. That would be good, because I do better against someone who is just as good or better than me. Maybe someday Mike and I will have a good future in diving. Mike Kofka, also a senior, performed exceptionally well. He achieved his goal of breaking the school record by scoring a 253. This score also set a new city meet record and ranked him second in the state. About his achievements Kofka stated, For me, the season seemed to go by a little too quickly, and as a senior, I wish it could've lasted longer. I was happy with the fact that I set my goals and accomplished them.

Weed and Phyllis Jones, had a more than satisfactory year. The boys' season ended with a 7-1 record. Keith McNulty, Chip Grimm, Pat Patterson, Robert Forst, Chris Keifer, and divers Tom Davis and Mike Kofka were the most outstanding boy swimmers. Kieth McNulty stated, Adjusting to a new coach is always hard, but I think we did pretty well this year.

The girls ended up with a 4-4 record. The most outstanding girl swimmers were Lisa Mancuso, Linda Walters, Ari Stern, Leina Tani, Lindy Gorishek, and diver Dawn West. Lisa Mancuso finished second in the state in the breaststroke; when asked how she felt about her accomplishments, she stated, It was my best year ever in swimming. My times finally came down. I was happy with my performance at the state meet. It felt great to go for it and get it after all these years of training.

Male Cheerleaders Spark School Spirit

For the first time ever in Marcos de Niza history there were not only female cheerleaders, but male cheerleaders as well. The addition of male cheerleaders allowed for better and more exciting stunts. The male cheerleaders added to the varsity squad this year were Troy Gray, Adam Phillips, Brandon West, and Steve LaLonde. I've had a lot of fun being a cheerleader and I know everyone else has, stated Adam Phillips.

Cheerleaders promoted school spirit in every way this year. The varsity squad must be commended for their superb performance this year seeing as there were no varsity cheerleaders returning from last year. Cheer has made our senior year really special and we're all going to miss it, said the senior varsity cheerleaders.

The cheer sponsor, Ms. Linda LaFontain, started coaching here at Marcos in the early 70's beginning with the pom pon line. When asked what helped make the squad so successful, LaFontain stated, Each cheer squad is unique as are the individuals on the squad.

Of course cheer is not just fun and games. The cheerleaders had practice every morning at 6:30; sometimes they even worked out with the ASU cheerleaders. Overall, the cheerleaders' dedication was felt throughout the school.

McClintock Defeat Brings City Title

The Varsity Football team beat its first four opponents, but then slipped to a 5-5 record. They defeated the other three Tempe High Schools, including a win over McClintock for the first time since 1973.

The Padres were led by Willy Lira, one of the top-ranked quarterbacks in the state, and Jeff Haugen at wide receiver.

The 29-20 victory over McClintock marked the first such win for Coach Castro in the seven years he has been the Head Coach at Marcos. The game was especially sweet for this year's largely senior team after the defeat suffered to McClintock last year.

In the third game, the Padres soundly defeated Corona del Sol, 20-13, followed by a close win, 21-20, over Mountain View in which junior Barry Julian replaced an injured Willy Lira at quarterback. Although the team slipped, it came back to defeat Tempe in a close 31-30 final game, winning the City Championship from McClintock for the first time in thirteen years Willy Lira reflected the general feeling of the team when he stated, We started off really good. . ., (and) since we finished strong, it was a successful season. Other team leaders this year included Sean Warren, Bary Julian, Jeff Sanuik, and Rowell Ashford. Jeff Sanuik and Paul Landrum led the team in rushing yardage. The two backs and Sean Warren accounted for most of the ground yardage and much of the success the team experienced.

Receivers Jeff Haugen and Mario Riley were also important contributors to the team. These two, with tight ends Dave Moser and Bryan Hooks, were the long yardage gainers and also scored many of the touchdowns this year.

Dedicated Front Line Scores Big

The Padre line was capable as well as dedicated to giving their best. They endured numerous upsets but celebrated in many victories as well. Through its efforts and hard work, the Padre team scored a winning season, with many players receiving recognition. At the end of this year's season, Coach Frank Castro stated, The offensive and defensive lines did an excellent job for us this year. It will be a big job replacing them next year.

Two Pommies Make All-American

The pom line instilled spirit in Padre fans, performing at spirit assemblies, during football games, and with the band at half-time. This year's Pom line produced two All - Americans, Senior Linda Rios and Junior Lisa Cleland. Competing at the highest possible rating, they were awarded a spirit stick and trophy.

The Pommies practiced before school for an hour each day, going over new routines and preparing for future performances. Linda Rios commented that, Its a hard job, but it is a neat experience to go through. You have to learn to get along with different types of people, but in the long run they become your friends.

The other All-American on the Pom line, Lisa Cheland, thought that, Camp was great. I had a blast. I met so many people from a lot of different schools. Our Pom line got a chance to win a spirit stick and a trophy. The camp was really neat, because we got to meet a lot of college Cheerleaders; but the best part was making All - American.

J.V., Frosh Prepare For Varsity Roles

The Junior Varsity Football team had a disappointing 1-6-1 year, but gained valuable experience and should be an asset to next year's varsity team.

The J.V. offense was led by Jim Mancuso at quarterback. Mancuso passed to Shane Boisjolie, Drew Colby, Troy Gray, Angelo Toliver, and Steve Chambers. Mike Molina and Charlie Moreno were the leading rushers. They were joined in the backfield by Robby Bajarano, and Gabriel Abril. The offensive line, consisting of Jon Gompert, Bruce Binkley, Chris Jones, John Manolio, Rob Johnson, and Doug Mousser, afforded Mancuso the time necessary to get the play off. The tight ends were Scott Bell and Tim Mollineaux. Rick Anderson, a defensive standout, also played the position.

On defense, the Junior Varsity was led by Mike Moore at strong safety and Mike Bolvin, a lineman. Other defensive players included Danny Martinez, Roy Vizcarra, Doug Mousser, John Manolio, Jon Gompert, Mike Molina, Ken Vogelsang, Adam Butler, Bill Rodgers, and Shane Boisjolie.

Freshman quarterback Mark Tobler summed up the Freshman Football season saying, We started off kind of slow, but improved and ended the season with a pretty good record. The freshmen went 4-4, defeating four straight opponents. Tobler directed the offense, often giving the ball to Dave Colborn, the leading rusher for the freshmen. On defense, the freshmen were led by John McCulloch. The explosive defense shut out both Chandler and Willis.

Junior Varsity head coach Jim Rance said, There was a lot of improvement from the beginning to the end of the season. With continued improvement, they should help Varsity next year.

VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

Leadership and Teamwork Bring Strong Finish

The Marcos de Niza Varsity Volleyball team developed into one of the competitive forces in the division following a building year in 1985. With five returning players, the volleyball team matured into a winner, beating all but one of its last six opponents. We pulled together at the end of the year because of hardwork, practice, and teamwork, said Junior player Becky Witter.

With such success, coach Carrie Boyles enthusiastically remarked, The program is on an upswing, and the coaching staff is looking forward to many more great seasons. She attributes their 6-10 record to hardwork on fundamentals and positive leadership by the seniors.

The outstanding players for the season were veterans Melissa Johnson and Melissa Beamsley. The other members of the team were sophomores Jenny Malasnik, Nicole Young; Juniors Becky Witter, Leann Lawrence and seniors Carmelle Hayes, Tammi Porter, Deanna Morenzoni, Katie Rasmussen, and Kelly Ray.

The Marcos De Niza Junior Varsity team played its best season ever recorded in Marcos' history. With eleven wins and five losses, the inspiration to be the best led them to victory. Mrs. Brunk, the Junior Varsity's Head Coach, stated that it was hard to pick out just one outstanding player, since every player contributed and did their own part. Nevertheless, Trisha Conley was chosen as the most outstanding player.

The Freshman Volleyball team had five wins and seven losses, but won the last four out of six games. Mr. Worthy, the freshman Head Coach, said that they improved as the season progressed. Moreover, everyone was really dedicated and serious about the team.

Both the Junior Varsity and the Freshman teams showed a lot of talent, which will make a very good team next year, when they go on to bigger and better things.

The Marcos de Niza Boy's Golf Team had an outstanding season. Backed by the coaching of Mr. Ron Cosner, the team was able to pull away with a 9-6-1 record and a tenth-place ranking in state.

Mr. Cosner believes his strong point of coaching is I like like to think I know a little about golf. Other coaches just organize the teams.

Some of the talented boy golfers on the team were Mark Vrabel, Joe Huguez, and Mike Duff.

The girl's golf team, under the coaching of Mr. John Lassen, had a more-than-satisfactory year. Although this year's team is slightly behind last year's, Mr. Lassen was confident his members will pull through with a strong finish, and they did.

Some of the outstanding girl golfers were Rhonda Perris, Jodi Fults, Pam Davis, and Mindy Verdugo.

Mr. Lassen believes in working hard during practice, but having fun while doing so. You must first enjoy playing the game, and then you must realize that improvement comes painfully slow.

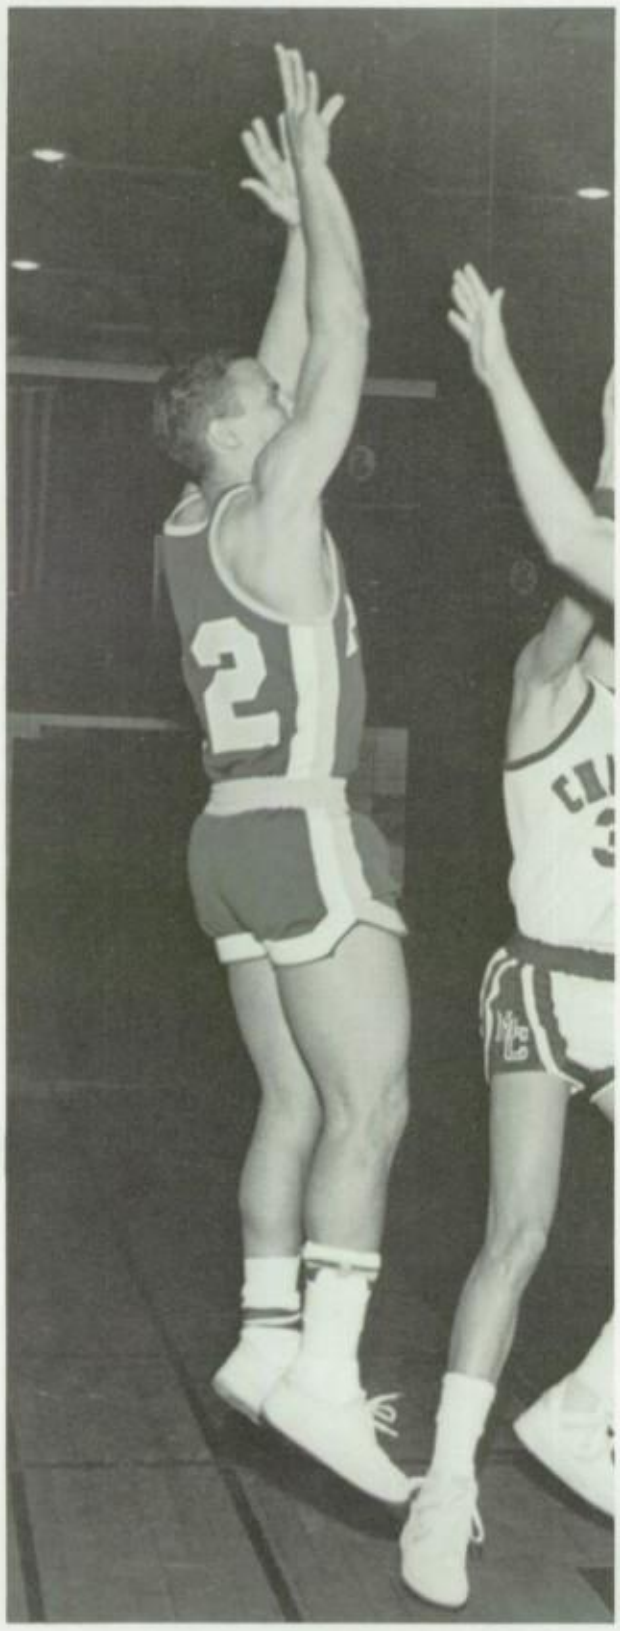
VARSITY BASKETBALL

A Rebuilding Season



The Varsity Boys' Basketball Team had a tough season after losing five starting players to graduation. With only two returning varsity lettermen, the team was faced with a rebuilding season. In addition, although many schools have the advantage of training players exclusively dedicated to basketball, several all-around athletes at Marcos made the quick transition from football to basketball. Willy Lira felt that the quick move affected him, stating I didn't have my shot down for the first month. Lira also felt that although many on the team began playing as individuals, they learned to perform more as a team later in the season. Although not reflected in its record, the team improved tremendously, becoming increasingly more competitive as the season progressed.

Leading scorer, Willy Lira, was also one of the team's co-captains, along with Rusty Bell. Snagging the most rebounds for the team was a job handled by Matt Hargis.

Although not pleased with their season record, most varsity players agreed that they had worked hard, learned a great deal and enjoyed playing together as a team.

Promising '88 season

The Junior Varsity Boys' Basketball Team is especially important, to prepare players for the next year's varsity team. According to Coach Morino, The players learned how to work as a team. The season was a rough one, but the team never lost its spirit. The team captain was Eric Swagel. Leading scorers were Eric Swagel, Mark Moser, and Scott Bell. Leading rebounders were Jim Mancuso and Brent Karnig.

These new athletes will provide a valuable base on which to build next year's Varsity team. Their victories included defeats over Corona and Chandler.

The Freshman Boys' Basketball Team celebrated a winning season due to the dedication and persistence of Coach Matwick. This year's team captains were Paul Eyler and Chris Lopez. The leading scorer and rebounder was Mark Tobler, averaging fourteen baskets and thirteen rebounds per game.

They excelled in defense as well as offense. With the same skills and attitudes, the team may enjoy similar success as a junior varsity team next year.

Top scorer, Eric Swagel, defends Marcos against the McClintock Chargers.

SOCCER

Punting and Spirit Keys to Success

The Boys' Varsity Soccer Team played exceptionally well during the 1986-87 school year. With the experience of six returning players, the team had a successful record of 7-4-3. According to Coach Jack Smythe, the key players were Eric Weikert, Warren Gesin, Jeff Gill, and Ryan Harper. Coach Smythe attributed their success to Warren Gesin's chipping, John Reinhardt's punts, Mike Chalmers' all-around spirit, and Jeff Gill's half-time inspirational anecdotes. According to player Eric Weikert, Coach Smythe influenced the attitudes of the players both on and off the field. He stressed sportsmanship and good judgment.

Experience, Hard Work Help Varsity

The Girl's Varsity Softball Team had a rough season, but its successes were due to hard work, and they expected to go to divisionals. Judy Hoke, a veteran of fourteen years of coaching, felt the season would be average due to the lack of varsity experience.

In the league, the team finished with a record of 5-13-1 and placed third in the Christmas Tournament.

Six players returned from last year, including four outstanding members: Melissa Beamsley, Rhonda Perris, and Kelley Arredondo.

Good Players Contribute To Success

This year's J.V. Softball Team had a record of 7-9. Coach Tom Huber was happy with the team and said, All the girls worked hard in practice and improved as the season went on. Leading pitcher for the team was Brooke Beadles who pitched two wins for the team; top sluggers were Esther Flores and Jenny Malasnik, both of whom hit over .400. They were a fun group of people to work with, according to coach Tom Huber.

The freshman team did well with a result of 11-5-1. According to Coach Ton Cosner, Having good players contributed to the successful outcome.

WRESTLING

Wrestlers made it through ups and downs

Wrestling had a season of ups and downs. Injury and illness to key wrestlers at critical times were the causes of the downs. With a healthy team, they placed 4-0 at the Dobson Invitational. The most outstanding wrestlers were in the senior group with Pat Burns 20-4-0 at no. 1, followed by Dave Gonzales, Bruce Ciolli, Marty Dispain, and Brian Hartman. Some outstanding underclassmen were Vick Durazo Jr., 18-7, and Mark Wood, 11-8-0. The wrestlers worked hard and practiced every day after school for about 2½ hours. We had a very healthy team, said Coach Urchike.

According to Senior Gerard Delos Santos, Varsity and J.V. look hopeful this year.

The Freshman Tennis Team finished this season with a successful 9-6 record. We are expecting the same performance as last year's team, but with more experience we should have better scores, commented Coach Hoke at the start of the season.

The boy's J.V. and Varsity teams should be strong this year, with two returning Varsity players and six returning J.V. players. Mr. Deacon commented that, This year's team should improve during the course of the season, as players gain experience.

GIRLS' VARSITY BASKETBALL

Team aims high,

Shoots for third consecutive state championship!

The Girls' Varsity Basketball Team in 1986 had a fantastic season, bringing Marcos de Niza its second State Championship with a record of twenty-seven wins, two losses. The team faced the same potential in 1987 with the return of several key players. Melissa Beamsly, one of the highest scorers last year, returned to help out the team. Coach Matwick also expected to see great things of Nicole Young and Kelly Ray. The Padre spirit was shown though their dedication and hard work in 1986. The season began this year with hopes to remain a victorious team and duplicates last year's success. (The Libro de Oro staff sincerely regrets not being able to fully cover the basketball season, due to the early February deadline.)

FROSH LOOKS TO FUTURE

Since all of the players on the Freshmen Girls' Basketball Team were outstanding, last year's season ended with a six-game winning streak. This was attributed to continued improvement throughout-the season.

All of this year's players will be new; therefore, Coach Schneider felt it would be a good year. He anticipated difficulty with the Mesa schools as our toughest opponents.

J.V. Bound for success

Last year, the Junior Varsity Girls Basketball team had a 19-0 record. Coach Dawson expects to have difficulty with the teams from Mesa, Mt. View, McClintock, and Corona. All the players were played on the team so they may move on to the Varsity level. At the beginning of the season, Coach Dawson looked forward to a good team depending on the development of the new players.

BASEBALL

Performance Excels

The Varsity Baseball Team looked forward to a good year. With such players as Tim Langen, Steve Bruner, and Eric Larson, the team expected to have a positive season. The successful season last year should provide a strong building block, commented Junior Joe Huguez.

Teamwork is the key factor in baseball, and this Varsity team drew its teamwork strength from seniors, as well as juniors. When our team wins, it's not because of an individual effort, it's because of our ability to work together, quoted Tim Langen.

The Freshman Team relied a lot upon improvement on the players' part, not just the coaches. Hardwork, combined with teamwork, made for a successful season.

TRACK

Track Team Excels

We had a real good J.V. track season last year, stated Coach Simons. With returning J.V. and varsity competitors, the '87 season looked very promising. One major concern was the development of sprinters and turning unknowns into competitors. The city was extremely competitive this season, said Mr. Simons. An added surprise for the girls' track team was going up against our former Coach Houser, who now coaches at McClintock. Many members returned this year, which made for a successful season. These included Jeff Sanuik, Mike Switzer, Samantha Thomas, Rob Bloehm, Drew Colby, Gioia Pitts, Cory Singleton, Erin Bobo, and Steve Quintero. Overall, the 1987 track season was one of endurance, dedication, and rewards, and for those who will return next year, it will be a season on which to build.

ARCHERY

Archery Aims High

The archery team was in a rebuilding stage this season due to the loss of its two top archers last year. Bridget Harper, Sharon Garcia, Jill Simpson and Brooke Farley were the top contenders to replace the 1986 seniors.

Angela Stahl and Peggy Bondurant were candidates for top archer this year, stated Coach Uricheck. Jill Simpson and Bridget Harper were the most improved archers during the 1986 season; their improvement was a valuable asset, making the team extremely competitive.

Camelback High School is the top team in the state. They have won fifteen state championships in the last seventeen years, replied Coach Uricheck, regarding whom he expected to be the toughest team they would face. In addition, tough matches were expected to be with Westwood and Agua Fria, who challenged Camelback for the State Championship in '87.

CLUBS

A great variety of clubs were available to students. Although anyone could be in these clubs, the key to the success of each club was dedication. In clubs such as DECA, JROTC, and National Honor Society, the amount of involvement made the club possible. All clubs enhanced individuality, allowing students to explore individual interests and work closely with students having similar interests.

Fund raisers, spirit, and time were key ingredients which went into the enhancement of the campus atmosphere and also contributed to the community. For every type of interest, students found a place to shine, exploring specific interests and becoming more involved in campus activities.

Student Council Brings Students Together

Marcos' school activities numbered in the hundreds throughout the year. When it was time to bring students together as a whole, student council was most likely involved.

From the first assembly of the year to the last, careful planning by sponsor John Placona and the rest of the council provided the student body with organized activities. Student body officers were elected in late April by all four classes and included President Martin Despain, Vice President Brad Devar, Sports and Spirit Commissioner Vinnie Canecchia, and Public Relations Director Lisa Mancuso. Besides the student body officers, each individual class had officers also. The freshman class was involved in candy sales in order to raise funds for next year's activities. Sophomores, led by President Nicloe Young and Vice President Sherri Jennigese, put on the Coronation Dance. Juniors faced their biggest challenge by holding Prom for the senior class. In order to hold this year's event at The Pointe, the class officers, including President Michelle Guzman, Vice President Kelley Arredondo, Secretary Donnelle Dumas, Treasurer Tiffany Ross, Boy's Rep Johnny Chin, and Girls' Rep Karen Randall, sponsored a number of fund raisers.

Senior activities were somewhat less hectic. The senior class trip to Mazatlan was the seniors' only major activity. Involvement from all four classes seemed to be in abundance. The schools' student leaders are tomorrow's future leaders. This year's council of twenty-two members helped students from all corners of Marcos come together as one.

Fame Performances Big Success

The active drama club at Marcos provided students with a chance to participate in theater-related activities. Ms. Dixie Partee sponsored this growing group of students which was quite busy all year. This year's fall play, Fame, was well-received as students and faculty joined together to perform the Broadway musical. The success of this performance was the result of long rehearsals by a determined cast and crew.

Trips to see performances all over The valley, and still another play in the spring provided members with more than one chance to get involved. Officers for this years club included President Colleen Lindsay, Vice President Matt Duncan, Secretary Angie Adams, Treasurer Sean Jensen, and Public Relation Director Joleen Davidson.

Master Dancers Inspire Students

The involvement of student dancers provided strength for yet another year of the Dance Club. President Leslie Alden and Vice President Dana Zbacnick led the club showing inspiration and leadership. The group met every Wednesday afternoon to discuss future activities and concerts. One of the more exciting events for the group was a visit to ASU in the fall to attend a master dance class. Here the young dancers were inspired with new ideas to be used for their spring dance concert.

Ms. Charolyn Mize arrived as the new dance instructor this year and was in charge of both beginning and intermediate dance. She sponsored the club, which had a fun and successful year.

Science and SSS

Science Club was organized twelve years ago to give students a chance to explore areas of science through projects and travel. About forty members were led by President Jim Jeamby, Secretary Peggy Bondurant, and Treasurer Angela Stahl. Selling candy, car signs, and mugs raised money for trips and projects. Meetings were held at least once a month and were sponsored by Mrs. Liska.

Donna Hahn sponsors a unique club, which has been at Marcos five years and consists of twenty-one members. The Special Student Service (SSS) Club aides the school and community. It also provides a stepping stone to acquaint special education students with a club setting. The officers were President Tom Minniti; Vice President Bill Paulsen; Secretary Kay Young; and Treasurer James Whitmer. The SSS members raised funds to support the registration fee, uniforms and transportation for the Special Olympics by selling Padre buttons and collecting newspapers; newspaper collections for the school nurse also assisted Marcos students with health needs.

Speech and Debate Speak Out

Every Thursday morning at 7:15, the Speech and Debate Team met to prepare for upcoming tournaments. Of the twenty-five members, only ten competed in debates. Despite this, they did well. Their officers were President and Team Captain Heidi Ann Maas, Team Co-Captain Barry Starrfield, Secretary Sheryl Howe, and Treasurer Amy Offenberg. Selling bagels was planned, as were other fundraisers, to raise money for t-shirts, awards, certificates, trophies, and the end-of-the-year banquet. In spite of not teaching at Marcos, Scott Weingart, Tempe Union High School District's Public Relations Director, still sponsors the club, because he enjoys working with students in this area.

Band Shows School Spirit

Eighty-three members of the band met at 6:45 a.m. and practiced through first hour everyday. They were led by Mr. John Clement and an extensive band council, consisting of President Richard Harris, Vice President Jennifer Meador, Secretary Chrissy Hedland, and Treasurer Julie Whipple. Additional positions of responsibility were held by Librarians Nancy Harper and Michelle Lowe, Equipment Managers Catalina Alverez and Jenny West, Uniform Managers Blake Tyler and Amy Wetzel, Photographer Rachel Connelly, Alumni Secretary Jenni Summers, and Flag Captain Becky Davidson. The band raised funds through candy sales, cheese and sausage sales, and car washes. These were used to sponsor a contest and tour in California.

Downhill All The Way For Skiers

Mrs. Peterson's Ski Club entered its tenth year with the purpose of providing students with a chance to ski with friends and other students. The club was rather large with fifty-five members, which was more than last year. The group met on the first Tuesday of every month. Fundraisers planned, bagel sales and donut sales, were used to lower the cost of ski trips. Club officers were Ian Remler, President; Chris MacGrath, Secretary/Treasurer; and Eckart Pape, Vice President.

Club Help With Careers

Marcos de Niza's Auto club had high expectations for the year. Auto Club has been in existence for ten years. This organization's purpose was to increase knowledge in technical fields, but specifically the auto field. The twenty-five members planned several fund-raisers for the year. These included T-shirt sales, candy sales, and a car bash. Auto Club's projects consisted of car shows, races, and service projects. Officers were President Scott Bossen; Vice President Tom Buhnerkempe; and Secretary/Treasurer, Steve Boremen. The sponsors were Mr. Villaverde and Mr. Painter.

Art Club finished its fourteenth year at Marcos de Niza and focused on providing artistic services for different clubs and organizations on campus. Members planned an Art sale, window paintings, candy sales, and silkscreen T-shirts with posters. The sales were intended to be used for art gallery hopping and inviting guest artists to Marcos de Niza. Teresa Payne and Livvy McKeown were the sponsors for the art club, and officers were Brandon Bedford, President; Pratansit Konathum, Vice President; Suzan Tus, Secretary; and Chanthavee Mchasraningood, Treasurer.

Preparing for the Future

We are the future was the motto HERO (Home Economics Related Occupations) members must take. They lived up to this high expectation by providing needed services to the community.

The officers were Toni Alcaraz, president; Anita Luera, vice president of activities; Joely Armijo, vice president of fundraising; Sandra Fisher, vice president of publicity; Eden Taylor, secretary; Cynthia Jarvis, treasurer; Adrian Williams, historian and Rachel Barrett, parliamentarian.

According to Mrs. Boydsten, club sponsor, The students learn job skills, leadership skills and end up with a sense of achievement of the year.

Preparations for the future was also the main objective of members of Jobs for Arizona Graduates (JAG), sponsored by Mr. Molina. All activities centered around ensuring that the students were adequately prepared for employment in the future.

The club members' main goal was to attend the State Conference which was funded by their candy sale.

JAG provided employment preparation and placement for seniors whose futures were undecided.

The officers were Lorenzo Acosta, president and Rachel Rodriguez, vice president.

COE and FBLA Provide Student Occupations

COE (Cooperative Office Education) and FBLA (Future Business Leaders of America) had a busy year concentrated with fundraisers and valuable work experience. These clubs were distinct, separate organizations: however, when students were accepted into the COE program, they automatically became members of FBLA. The club members received wages and school credit for the work they performed. The purposes of FBLA were to make business students aware of business opportunities and help them work toward a business career. Learning secretarial skills and receiving work experience in Tempe business offices was the purpose of COE.

The officers for both clubs were Valerie Savard, president; Thanh Davenport, treasurer; Susan Cheatham, secretary and Elia Acosta, publicity. In response to what students receive from this program, Mrs. Crews stated FBLA and COE teach the student leadership skills, and through State Competition, offer the students the opportunity to compete with other students in business skill competition and receive recognition for their ability.

JROTC Offers Opportunities

The JROTC, Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps, finished its eighth year at Marcos de Niza. This organization prepared high school students for responsible leadership roles and made them aware of the opportunities and benefits of citizenship. Classtime included physical training, practice, and meetings. Lt. Colonel Olbermeir, Sergeant First Class Fisher, and the ninety-two members planned candy sales to support Spring Encampment and a Military Ball. JROTC officers were as follows: Pat Patterson, Executive Officer; Cory Renfro, Cadet Command, Shawn Wilson, Cadet Second Lieueteneant; Brian Mayfield, Cadet Second Lieutenant; Carl Cooper, Cadet Major. The JROTC marched in the Veteran's Day Parade and was highly praised for its performance.

Clubs Display Cultural Interests

Integrating foreign students into American society was the purpose of the International Club. Some of the countries represented in this club were Japan, Iran, and Saudi Arabia.

The officers were Nora Gierloff, president; Erika Mitnik, vice president; and Ami Stoklas, treasurer. The sponsors were Ms. Walske and Mrs. Little. Ms. Walske stated, The club creates an opportunity for American students and foreign students to establish friendship.

The Jewish Student Union (JSU) was a new addition to Marcos de Niza. The group's main intention was to give the Jewish students a sense of community and provide interested non-Jewish students with a better understanding of the Jewish culture.

Club officers included Ian Remler, president; Eric Swagel, vice president; Mike Chalmer, treasurer; Rebecca Goldman, secretary and Ari Stern, activities coordinator.

Great Year for BSU

With its thirty members, Black Student Union had another outstanding year. The purpose of BSU is to increase knowledge and awareness of the problems relating to the educational, economical, political, and social conditions of black people in the community. Many members of BSU participated in the first Personal Awareness Leadership Conference in Prescott, Arizona.

One activity sponsored by BSU was Career Day. All four Tempe High Schools' BSU members met at Corona del Sol to speak with people of varying careers. Each member talked to each facilitator for ten minutes to learn about the different jobs and the required education for each job.

When asked how she felt when Evan Mecham decided to revoke the plan for a Martin Luther King holiday, Mrs. Bobo, club sponsor, stated My concern is to always be able to deal with the adversities in life because there always will be Evan Mechams in this world.

Officers for this group were Noralyn Payne, president; Chanda McDonald, vice president; Patryce Davis, treasurer; Erin Nicole Bobo, public relations and Chris Bobo, photographer.

Business Skills Are Sharpened By DECA

Attaining an understanding and working knowledge of marketing principles was the fundamental goal of DECA. Through competition at conferences, as well as on the job, students learned how the world of business really works.

A blood drive in October for United Blood Services, raised one hundred and fifteen pints of blood, which was the biggest turnout from any school blood drive. More students gave blood this year than any other year at Marcos.

Other fundraisers included, in November, collections at home football games, and a raffle on Friday, November 14, sponsored for the United Way campaign; the grand prize was a chauffered evening for two with $25 to spend for the evening. DECA sponsor, Dan Greaven, was chauffer.

Also, in November, DECA held a canned food drive with HERO to provide food for the needy. Each of the marketing classes sponsored a poverty-stricken child; every member paid one dollar a month toward that goal.

Mr. Dan Greaven, Marketing Coordinator, advised the group officers: President Desiree Whitehorn; Vice President of Planned Projects, Jenny Kingston; Vice President of School Public Relations Carol Vega; Vice President of Communications Kati MacDonald, and Money Manager Jared Cooper. Photo Managers were Kathleen Davis and Staci Dunigan, and Lab Managers were Dawn Rainwater and Jenifer Gude.

DECA's Blood Drive A Success

The DECA Blood Drive was a huge success. Mr. Dan Greaven, Marketing advisor said, More Seniors participated this year than any other year.

To give blood, students had to be seventeen years old and weigh 110 pounds. The drive was run entirely by the students. They did all of the baking and made all the arrangements. Students baked cookies to give to donors in order to help build their strength back up. Mr. Greaven said that the only thing the group did not do was the actual blood taking.

Greetings from Around The World!

Mrs. Joann Pompa's French Club finished its sixteenth year at Marcos de Niza. The club's goal was to promote a better understanding of the French language, culture, and people. Forty-five to fifty members comprised the club. Club officers were Co-Presidents Ari Stern and Natalie Blachere; Vice president Angela Hu; Treasurer Chantal Mulleneaux; Secretary Barry Starrfield; Activities Director Kris Huskingson; and Historian Karen Frankenstien. Fund-raisers planned for the year were Santagram sale, and a candy sale. The funds were to be used for an adopted child in Cameroon and a Cameroon goat at the Phoenix zoo.

Bonjóur, Buenos Dias

The German Club had great expectations for the year. Meetings for the club were scheduled usually on the first Tuesday of the month. German Club's function at the school was to promote German cultures outside the classroom. Mrs. Glockner was the main sponsor for the club, and there were twenty members in the group. Club officers were Pam Davis, President; Lily Wu, Vice President; Karen Snyder, Secretary; and Jason Alexander, Treasurer. Fund-raisers included an Advent Calendar sale; and the sale's funds were to go to pay for a dinner at a German restaurant. German Club has been a student organization at Marcos for the past six years.

Mrs. Garcia's Spanish Club ended its sixteenth year at Marcos de Niza. Its purpose was to provide the cultural enhancement of Spanish heritage to the student body. The fifteen members planned a balloon sale, and the funds from that were to be used for college board placement test payoffs. In past years, trips to Tolleson, Mazatlan, and Noagles were planned; some were carried over to this year, but not all were arranged.

NHS Serves Community

The National Honor Society's purpose was to recognize outstanding Juniors and Seniors for their achievements in the areas of service, scholarship, character, and leadership.

The members strived to serve the campus through various projects and programs like student tutoring, an art festival, college night, and freshman orientation, to name a few.

The officers were President Lisa Palmer, Treasurer Kristy Krenzer, Vice President Deanna Morenzoni, and Secretary Angela Stahl. They had forty-five additional original members, and they inducted approximately forty more juniors and seniors in December.

National Honor Society members raised funds for scholarships to be awarded to two N.H.S. members selected by the Marcos faculty. Funds were also used for service projects and hosting a senior breakfast to honor the top ten percent of the graduating class in May.

The only fundraiser set up was a tutoring program for students from Marcos and surrounding schools who needed help in their classes.

N.H.S. members met once a month before school on Wednesdays.

The group's sponsor was Mrs. Cummings. The Marcos De Niza chapter of National Honor Society has been an important organization since Marcos opened its doors in 1971.

A Moment Of Glory For NHS Inductees

Forty-five students were inducted into the Marcos de Niza chapter of National Honor Society on December 3. Chosen on leadership skills, character, academic achievements, and community service, it was necessary for each candidate to be sponsored by at least three faculty members.

Maintaining a grade point average of 3.5 was the first prerequisite to be considered for N.H.S., and it continues to be a firm requirement. Once inducted, if a member falls below a 3.5 g.p.a., he is given a warning and put on probation for a semester. Building upon its reputation for community service, National Honor Society requires that each member perform two service projects a year. One such project performed by N.H.S. members is an extensive tutoring program aimed at assisting Marcos students in areas of academic difficulty. New inductee Teri Richter said It was an honor to be selected into N.H.S.

Madrigal, A Capella Choir Tune Up

Mr. Jake Rittenhouse was the sponsor for A Cappella Choir, which has been at Marcos since 1971. The thirty-three member choir met everyday during fourth hour. The officers were Christi Eitel, Todd Boyd, Cami Christensen, Karla Bosse, and David Dotts. To raise money for a choir tour to California, a car wash was held. In addition, a cheese and sausage sale, a candy sale, a gift-check sale, and a spaghetti dinner were all arranged.

Guitar and Orchestra

Seventeen students met each day during third hour and played to their hearts' desires. These students are members of the well-established guitar club, sponsored by Mr. Bob Diaz. For thirteen years, guitar club has been at Marcos promoting the guitar and the variety of music for which it may be used. Officers were President Ted Dequina, Vice President Andy Chacon, Secretary Kristina Huskinson, and Treasurer Joseph Monyer. They raised funds for a tour by candy sales. Also, they played an enthusiastic role in the Christmas Assembly.

The twenty-seven member orchestra, sponsored by Jill Osborne, met every day seventh hour. The group was led by its officers, President Lisa Palmer; Vice President Keith Shillito; Secretary Christine Lyle; Treasurer Torrey Mason; and Public Relations Becky Witter. The Orchestra, which has been at Marcos since it opened, had candy sales and car washes to raise money for the scholarship fund, music festivals, and for attending All-State competition.

Yearbook Requires Dedicated Staff

In the Spotlight was this year's yearbook theme which focused on all of the obvious aspects of life at Marcos de Niza. Behind the scenes, however, a group of twenty-nine students worked diligently to prepare the yearbook, meeting first hour each day. The yearbook staff was supported by the brand-new photojournalism class. This class, taught by Mr. Burnett, helped by supplying pictures to the yearbook staff.

Students worked on their own sections as they created layouts, wrote copy, captions and headlines and in general, prepared the yearbook.

Mrs. Thompson, the sponsor to yearbook, said Few people realize the amount of work and dedication that goes into preparing a yearbook. Fortunately we have a group of students who were willing to put forth great effort and provide the student body with a quality yearbook.

Brett Hofmann, Editor-in-chief stated My four years on the staff gave me a better sense of direction and helped to make this yearbook the best it could be. Lezlie Smith, who began as Assistant Editor, played an important role and functioned as Managing Editor for the majority of the year.

Another Successful year for Staff of Padre Press

The school newspaper, the Padre Press, puts out an issue of the newspaper each month. This year was a record-breaking year for the Padre Press. The staffers published two sixteen-page papers, and they also had the first color issue in the school's history.

Some members of the staff were able to attend a summer workshop at NAU, and they also participated in other various journalism conventions throughout the year. The Padre Press enables the journalism students to learn the tactics for a professional journalism career, and it opens up a new door to a career field that they may not have investigated otherwise. I really enjoyed working on the Padre Press, because it offered me numerous opportunities in the journalism field, said Donna Hale, Co-editor-in-chief. Melinda Easton, also a co-editor-in-chief, said I really enjoyed working on the paper because it gave me a chance to work with some fantastic people. Even though it was a lot of work at deadlines, we still had a lot of fun. I hope next year is just as productive.

Marcos Honored

I think we're as good as any high school in the state, and I think we deserve to have the community and the students know that. This was the reaction of Dr. Fitzgerald when he heard of Marcos' award as one of the top high schools in the state. Presenting the award in January was Diane Bishop, Superintendent of Public Instruction for the State of Arizona. The annual award was shared with five other state high schools, including Dobson High, Chandler High, Flowing Wells, Arcadia, and Baboquivari High.

A citizen task force rated all of the thirty-three applicants and chose Marcos on the following qualities:

* A program involving all faculty in decision-making seminars.
* A drug and alcohol abuse program for students students.
* An English-for-Foreign-Students program, involving students from eighteen countries.
* A staff development program.
* A strong emphasis on teaching critical-thinking skills.

English department head, Mrs. Katherine Watson, was the main instigator in getting Marcos' application submitted. It's very much like an extended family on our campus, and our slogan this year for our students and faculty is We all Belong, and that is, to me, the greatest strength of our school. That term is not used as a gimmick; it is really felt from the heart.

(Excerpts from Tempe Daily News, 1-27-87)

YEAR IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Year In Review

Another year has ended, and it is always a little sad, especially for graduating seniors. This has been a quick year, a good year, a year of change on our campus. We are fortunate to see new classrooms, a second gymnasium, and an auditorium almost completed. To the seniors, we wish our best to you as you go out to your future. May God be with you.

- Dr. Fitzgerald
Principal

From the Editor

The arrival of another yearbook signals the end of a year-a year full of excitement and activity of which every student became a part. The labor and pain that went into this year's book was shared by all the staff. I would like to thank our adviser, Mrs. Sandy Thompson, for her endless hours of dedicated assistance to all. Her arrival as the new yearbook adviser cast doubts on us all as to how the book would turn out. She ended up proving our doubts wrong as her hard-working, knowledgeable character helped to create a quality yearbook. Without her, this book could not have been possible.

I would also like to thank Mr. Burnette and his staff of photographers for providing us with photos anytime we needed them. Finally, I would like to thank Lezlie Smith, the Managing Editor, and all the other staff members for their dedication and hard work. You all helped to make this year a bright one In the Spotlight.

For all my fellow seniors, I hope your stay at Marcos has been as memorable as mine. Next year will bring new destinations and activities away from Marcos and all the friends you have made here. I wish you the best of luck at whatever life brings you.
